

I am deeply disturbed by Sinclair Broadcasting's plan to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before one of the most important presidential elections in our nation's history. What good is the FCC, if it will not stop this blatant mis-use of the public airways for such obviously partisan purposes?